What happens in the Big Easy doesn't always stay in the Big Easy. Thank goodness.

The Billionaire Bargains, Book 3

When billionaire Emily Steele breaks off her eight-year relationship with the only boy she's ever dated, she quickly realizes she has a lot to learn. About the world. About herself. And men. Definitely men.

A friend's bachelorette party in New Orleans is the perfect place to get in touch with her inner vixen. Trouble is, she's never actually met her inner vixen. Worse, her overprotective uncle's determination to keep her safe means she's going to have a babysitter for the weekend. A tall, handsome babysitter who makes her tingle from head to toe.

Will Weston has always thought his boss's niece was special, and now that she's single, he's even more acutely aware of her beauty and charm. Her uncle's insistence that he accompany her to the world's sexiest city has mistake written all over it—until she offers his best friend a million dollars to be her date.

Now there's no way Will is staying behind, even though he knows something crazy is going to happen. Because falling in love in a weekend is definitely crazy.

Warning: Contains a woman with enough money to buy a date for a weekend in New Orleans, a guy who's never going to let that happen, a bachelorette party on Bourbon Street, hot sex to slow jazz, and beignets... because there has to be beignets.
