Death by Love at First Sight: a book of poems J. Vincent Elliott

Death by Love at First Sight is a collection of poems about women, travel, music, good beer, turtles, Florida, lullabies, paintings and Detroit. Often playful but occasionally unsmiling, the poems in this collection read like a travel journal and love story, written in J. Vincent Elliott's bombastic, extravagant style. Lifted directly from the pages of his journals and notebooks, Death by Love at First Sight is about finding and losing, about life up and down I-75 and wherever else feet can go, and mostly and above all about love. Death by Love at First Sight is J. Vincent Elliott's first collection of poems. He is also the author of the children's book, The Story of Rufus Newt and Potato Knob.
