Cash around the Globe, a reality TV show sends contestants around the world to win a prize of one million dollars. Elementary school teacher Millie joins this popular TV show because she needs the prize money for her students and school. However, she discovers that her partner for the show is Jace, the man who dumped Millie on the season finale of The Groom, another reality show. Even though the two distrust one another and their own feelings, they pass several difficult tasks. The most dangerous thing in the show is definitely the gorgeous Jace...
