Réquiem (Portuguese Edition) Petê Rissatti

O que você faria se não pudesse mais sonhar? Essa é a questão que Petê Rissatti abre com seu romance. Ivan G., o protagonista, vive num mundo regido por uma única mão forte, o Governo Mundial. Um dia, recebe uma carta informando que todos os cidadãos estão proibidos de sonhar e, para isso, deverão tomar o Réquiem, um medicamento que anula qualquer possibilidade de sonhos. A punição para quem tem os sonhos rastreados é pesada e ninguém quer se arriscar. Ivan, um mero organizador de arquivos do Governo, muito menos. Porém, numa noite qualquer, Ivan fica sem Réquiem e acaba cometendo o crime. A partir daí, sua vida vira de pernas para o ar quando se vê envolvido com os revolucionários Sonhadores, numa batalha de morte com o Governo opressor. ?A química do Réquiem estava em sua corrente sanguínea, não havia com que se preocupar, pensou. Sua mãe dissera, não precisava temer. Rolou na cama algumas vezes, ligou o abajur para tentar ler um pouco na sua multitela, mas não conseguia se concentrar. Até que finalmente adormeceu. E teve um sonho.? (Trecho do livro)
