One of the themes that is hidden just below the surface of the lives of the people of faith in the Bible, which is clearly apparent once you see it, is that God wants to write the scripts and screenplays of our lives (Phil. 2:13). People like Noah, Abraham, Joseph, Moses, and David in the Old Testament, and Peter and Paul in the New Testament, put all of their hopes, dreams, aspirations, and even their lives on the line to follow the plans of God for them. This makes the Christian life the most uniquely challenging journey imaginable. A God-composed journey of faith is integral and inseparable with the high standards of God for end-times Christians. This is the message of this book.
