THE WEST IN ALL ITS GLORY!

T.V. Olsen's Western stories have long been noted for their depth of emotion and their sheer excitement, guaranteed to grip readers and transport them back to the days when the West was wild and men made their own laws. This collection features twelve of his greatest tales, including the title story, in which a man wanders onto the Whippletree Ranch, disoriented and suffering from amnesia, setting off a series of bitter clashes that may lead to a bloody range war. But each story is a prime example of the best the West can offer, filled with courage and honor, action and adventure.
