El tiempo que querría (Spanish Edition) Fabio Volo

«Cambiaría todos mis mañanas por un solo ayer.»

Lorenzo no sabe amar, o simplemente jamás ha sabido demostrarlo. Ahora, a los treinta y siete años, tiene ante sí dos amores difíciles de su pasado, que debe reconquistar, que debe reconstruir.

Por un lado, el amor de su padre, el hombre que admiraba de niño, cuyo afecto y atención anhelaba, y de quien se ha distanciado hasta parecerle un extraño más. Por el otro, el de «ella», la mujer que le ha dejado y cuyo nombre nadie se atreve a pronunciar delante de Lorenzo.

Dos llamadas de teléfono, dos noticias inesperadas #su padre está enfermo, «ella» se va a casar... obligan a este hombre que ha alcanzado el éxito sin olvidar sus raíces a emprender un viaje a los recuerdos, a su trayectoria personal y a esos sentimientos, los más auténticos, que siempre ha guardado en lo más hondo.

Una historia en la que descubrimos con emoción, conmovidos incluso, cuántas cosas en la vida de su protagonista se asemejan a la de cualquiera de nosotros. Una historia que habla con sencillez de las pequeñas lecciones importantes: lo maravilloso y difícil que es convivir en pareja, las dudas al amar, la relación con los padres cuando pasan los años y la oportunidad de tender siempre un puente cuando parecía que ya no quedaba esperanza.
