Alexander Del Mar (Delmar)

Elibron Classics. Replica of 1885 edition by George Bell and Sons, London.

Alexander del Mar, also Alex Delmar (1836–1926), was an American political economist, historian, numismatist and author. His book is an important contribution to the history of money. The author distinctly hostile to a central monetary role for gold as a commodity money, championing the cause of silver and its re-monetization as a prerogative of the state. The books also reflects his strong belief in the legal function of money.
