Borderlands Jane Candia Coleman

In this thrilling collection of brilliant short stories, award-winning author Jane Candia Coleman takes us on an exciting tour of the different borderlands of the Old West, some real, some emotional, borderlands that mark endings...but also beginnings. From settlers on the Montana-Canada border to Pancho Villa's bold attack on New Mexico, these tales tell of daring and courage, adventure and danger. They feature journeys made by people looking for a better life, to escape an old life—or simply to stay alive.
