Si volviesen sus majestades (Spanish Edition) Ignacio Padilla

Esta no es una novela, es el último borrador de una novela que jamás existió. Un borrador que se autodestruye constantemente y un diario íntimo que aspira a ser público. Lo escribe el solitario responsable de un reino que ha sido abandonado por sus amos. Entre lagartos albinos, teléfonos, televisores, historietas y remordimientos, el narrador de esta historia vive exiliado del tiempo y del espacio. Sólo le acompaña y consuela su bufón, el único capaz de comprender la tragedia de su vida y de seguir con él hasta el final del mundo. Con esta novela, donde el Apocalipsis alcanza incluso al lenguaje, Ignacio Padilla ha realizado una de las propuestas más audaces y entretenidas de la literatura mexicana de las últimas décadas. Versión fatalista y cómica de la búsqueda del Santo Grial, Si volviesen sus majestades demuestra por qué el absurdo sirve mejor que nunca para explicar la condición humana
