Climb every mountain...

Find out how a fun-loving young girl was motivated to turn early life tragedy and challenges into a life of freedom and 'mountain top' experience. Discover how a strong faith, courage and tenacity were required to reverse her destiny and find her true identity.

This memoir is of one of Western Australia's first female Anglican deacons and priest to be given a Parish within the North Eastern Goldfields incorporating Leinster, Leonora and Laverton. Her journey will certainly enlighten, enthrall and encourage women to overcome adversity.

Pamela Halbert tells of her courageous life. From her beginning as the daughter of Australian pastoral parents and carrying that strong perspective into her personal challenges, whether working in suburbia, remote mining centres or rural communities.
