Herb Cole knew it wouldn't be easy to return to his ranch. He'd left years ago under suspicion of cattle rustling, but now that his last accuser is dead, he can't be formally charged. Of course, that still doesn't mean the rest of the town believes in his innocence. Especially when a rancher is murdered and, with his dying breath, declares Cole his killer. This time, there will be no slipping away. This time, Cole will have to stand up and fight for his life against a town that demands his death.
