Deanna thought of the one conversation she had heard about mail order brides in the past.

“This guy had been so ready to find a female that he sent her an urgent telegram. He sent her a ticket, and she was gone the very next day. I’m telling you this has gotten quicker than it was in the past.”

“Could I be lucky enough?” She dreamt how it would feel.

In all her fantasies she wouldn’t see a face of a man, or anything to do with that. She would see the trees, the bears, the whatever. Just to see life in a new way. She hoped to be able to climb a mountain one day!

The sense of adventure was driving her to do whatever needed to be done.
