It is always difficult to know how to write up research, and as academics and postgraduates alike come under increasing pressure to improve rates of publication a text like this one is essential reading for all researchers.

The book discusses all aspects of translating research into writing, including:

- * getting started and keeping going
- * putting into words what you want to say
- * ways of organizing your work
- * coping with problems, blockages and sustaining morale
- * style and format
- * editing your writing
- * writing alone and writing in a team
- * approaching problems and getting published.

This book will be of use to students, researchers and writers concerned with getting their research written and having it published.
