Breakfast for Two (Peakview series Book 2) Jill Haymaker

Contemporary romance writer, Jill Haymaker, brings you back to Peakview, Colorado, with her second book in the Peakview Series. Another story to capture the hearts of baby boomers and show that you are never too late to find that perfect love.

The tiny, mountain town of Peakview, Colorado, wouldn't be the same without Violet's Café, and its owner, Violet Woods. Widowed in her fifties, she leads a solitary life with only her cat Lucky to keep her warm at night. All thoughts of romance died with Stan. They had a wonderful, long happy marriage, and she's content to live out the rest of her life with her memories.

Howard Crandall, Peakview's only mechanic, is a confirmed bachelor and something of a hermit. When Stan died, he took it upon himself to look out for Violet. Over the years, they have become friends, but it isn't until the past he has hid from for thirty years past suddenly catches up with him, that he opens up to the idea of finding love.

Is there a second chance for these two lonely souls?
