Beyond Cairo: US Engagement with the Muslim World (Palgrave Macmillan Series in Global Public Diplomacy) Darrell Ezell

The US's once-enthusiastic commitment to restore trustworthy relations with the Muslim world has dwindled considerably since president Barack Obama's 2009 'New Beginning' address in Cairo, Egypt. Beyond Cairo examines US diplomacy in the years following this speech and explores Washington's lagging engagement with the Muslim world. This book tackles the problems with public diplomacy as the US has been practicing it and provides a roadmap for the US to re-engage the Muslim world over the coming years.
