Trip to Tipton and Other Compulsions, a volume of sixty-eight poems, records the unfolding events from one year of the author's life, capturing special highlights (a trip to Europe with his wife, the celebration of their second wedding anniversary, their mystical visits to Wisconsin and Illinois) as well as daily routines (his first experiences as an outlet-store manager and as a traveling salesman, his journeys to St. Louis and to small Midwestern towns, his home life in Farmington, Missouri), revealing his struggle to incorporate the idealistic, romantic world of the artist into his realistic, pragmatic existence as a young, newly married businessman, left wondering if life is more than "the sum of seasons leaving and arrived."

As a scholar exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or make summary for some book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their pastime. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Trip to Tipton and Other Compulsions can make you sense more interested to read.
